

9th Annual Black Heritage Event

HARLEM RENAISSANCE: MANY VOICES, ONE SOUND

Thursday, February 23, 2012

John Gilbert Reese Center
Alford Performing Arts Hall
7:30-8:30 P.M.

FREE and public entertainment for the entire family!

This event has the energy and enthusiasm of the Harlem Renaissance period with the sounds of music, dances, and poetry of the 1920s and 1930s. You will be taken back in history, if only for a short time, as student performers of Ohio State Newark and COTC and The Ohio State University's Big Band Jazz Ensemble delight us with the zest and spice of the early 20th century.

Multi-Cultural Affairs

mca@cotc.edu

taylor.1051@osu.edu

1290 University Drive
Newark, Oh 43055

Sponsors:

COTC Academic Affairs
Ebonye Horizons, student group
Band of Brothers, student group
Black Heritage Planning Committee