PROGRAM HIGHLIGHTS: This introduces students to the history and culture of Liverpool, England. It considers Liverpool as a microcosm of three centuries of British history, examining its role in the 18th century slave trade, its colorful immigration history, and its recent transformation from a blighted industrial city roiled by labor disputes into a European Capital of Culture in 2008.

Students will attend classes in Newark June 5-29 and July 16-27 and travel to Liverpool June 30-July 13. Activities include city tours, including the docks, Chinatown and the Cavern Club, home of the Beatles; visits to museums, cultural events and performances; and day trips to Manchester, a birthplace of the Industrial Revolution, and the medieval Conwy Castle on the coast of North Wales.

PREREQUISITES: Good academic standing; English 1110 (may be taken concurrently). This course fulfills the “open option” GE.

PROGRAM FEE: In addition to tuition, students pay a $1,000 fee that covers the costs of flights, accommodations, breakfast, public transportation, museum entries and tours, and a group meal.

SCHOLARSHIPS: Search for scholarships at go.osu.edu/EAfunding. Many deadlines are in the fall; do not wait until you've applied for the Liverpool course itself to seek funding.
