Teaching Excellence Award, Nomination Form

The Teaching Excellence Award is presented annually to each of the following: (i) one full-time lecturer/visiting assistant professor, (ii) one tenure-track faculty member, and (iii) one tenured faculty member “to recognize individuals doing excellent teaching and to stimulate excellence in teaching.”

Recipients are selected by a committee of previous winners, faculty appointed to the Professional Standards Committee, and if possible, students appointed by the Student Senate Committee. Ohio State Newark students, faculty, administrators, and alumni may make nominations; nominations must be signed and supporting reasons provided. Self-nominations are not permitted.

Please return nominations by Friday of the 6th week of Spring semester (February 19, 2016), to Dr. John E. Harper, Subcommittee Chair, at his office (Reese 254) or to Dr. Harper’s mailbox in the Services Center (Founders 156).

Name of Nominee:

Please describe the nominee’s strength as a teacher. (Use additional pages if necessary.)

I understand the above statement will be supplied to the Selection Committee with my name removed.

Your signature: ___________________________ Date: ______________

Printed Name: ___________________________

Recent winners who are not eligible: 2015- Julie Hupp, Melissa Buelow, Matthew Tidwell; 2014- Stephanie Brown, Brad Okdie, Ozlem Dogan-Ekici; 2013- Jose Cabral, Dan Keller, Stephen Evans.