Dear Future Buckeye,

We are now past the May 1 deadline. What does that mean? No need to panic! In this edition of Buckeye Bulletin, we will explore what it means to you as it depends on where you are in our enrollment process.

- If You Have Paid Your Acceptance Fee: Those students who have paid their $100 acceptance fee should be “good to go” and will receive an invitation in the next couple of days to schedule a virtual orientation date. If you have paid your acceptance fee, look for this invitation in your BuckeyeMail account soon.

- If You Have Not Paid Your Acceptance Fee: Some students have not paid their $100 acceptance fee yet and that is perfectly fine. We want you to pay your acceptance fee when you are ready and know that Ohio State Newark is the right place for you. To pay your acceptance fee, you should follow the link that was emailed to you when you were admitted to Ohio State Newark. If you have difficulty finding this, these Helpful Hints should help you or please feel welcome to call our office for assistance.

If you are finding it challenging to commit to Ohio State Newark, breathe easy. You can enroll throughout the summer and our admissions team is here to help you when you need us! Our first day of class is August 25 so you will want to have everything wrapped up by that time. Paying your acceptance fee as soon as possible does allow you to be eligible for orientation and, of course, have the best course selectivity.

Check out the admitted student web page where you will find other helpful resources. Please contact our Admissions Office at any time (740.366.9333) or Newark-askabuckeye@osu.edu to speak to your admissions counselor when you have specific questions or needs. Also, our admissions team will be hosting Zoom office hours on Thursdays each week. Students are asked to register at scarletandgray.osu.edu by using the access code NWKZOOM20.

Sincerely,

Diane Kanney
Director of Enrollment
