NOW: Activate your BuckeyeMail account at my.osu.edu. Your username is your lastname.# that can be found in your admission letter. On the left side of the page, click change email delivery. Select create my buckeye account and submit. It is important to activate your email as soon as possible. The university uses this email for all official communication. Information about orientation, housing, financial aid and athletic tickets will only be sent to your BuckeyeMail account.

1. OCT. 1–FEB. 1: Submit your FAFSA at fafsa.gov by February 1.

2. EARLY JAN.–MAR. 15: Submit special eligibility scholarship applications to go.osu.edu/newarkscholarships. Apply to ScholarshipUniverse by Feb. 1.

3. BEFORE APRIL 1: *Submit housing application and deposit at go.osu.edu/newarkhousing. Apply to Honors and LeFevre Fellows.

4. BEFORE MID–APRIL: *Submit a learning community to create opportunities to engage and build a sense of community and professional connections. See which one is right for you at go.osu.edu/newarklc.

5. BEFORE MAY 1: Pay acceptance fee. Students must pay a nonrefundable $100 fee online in Applicant Center. A statement with further instructions is sent to your BuckeyeMail. Pay acceptance fee by May 1 for early orientation (best class selection) and to be eligible for football tickets. All students are required to answer a question regarding felony history prior to paying the fee. Complete additional forms. All students must agree to a Financial Responsibility Statement (FRS) prior to registering for classes each term. Find the FRS under My To-Do List at buckeyelink.osu.edu. By default, students are enrolled in the Student Health Insurance (SHI) Benefits Plan. To waive SHI, go to buckeyelink.osu.edu. Under “Finances,” locate “Student Health Insurance” and follow instructions. Submit proof of insurance.

6. MAY–AUGUST: Register for orientation and placement testing. Orientation and placement testing updates will be sent to your BuckeyeMail on a rolling basis after May 1. Register for an orientation date. Schedule required placement testing in English and math (foreign language testing is optional) prior to your orientation date.

7. AFTER HIGH SCHOOL GRADUATION: Submit your final high school transcripts. Be sure to have your final high school transcripts (and college transcripts if you participated in College Credit Plus) sent to the Columbus campus of Ohio State: The Ohio State University Undergraduate Admissions P.O. Box 182646 Columbus, Ohio 43218-2646.
